

Remembrance Sunday 2020

The children chatted about the soldiers who died to help us live today. We talked about how we remember them with poppies. We looked at what poppies are and we drew and made our own. Other people who live near us bought poppies too. We all placed them at “The Silent Soldier” on Blundell Fields so that everyone can see them and remember the people who died for us too.

