

Supertato

The children have loved listening to the Sue Hendra stories about Supertato and how he saves the day from The Evil Pea! They designed their own 'Supertatoes' deciding that they needed capes and faces to take on the character. This led onto thinking about and exploring other seasonal vegetables – chopping up and pumpkins then feeling and talking about the seeds and adding faces to make them into characters too.

