

Mental Health Week October 8th-12th Oct

We have been working with our children during mental health week. Children have been learning about feelings – rolling a feelings dice to describe the feelings; learning how to recognise others feelings from their faces, and hearing stories about how children are feeling. Children have also been learning about self-control and how to manage their bodies by taking part in yoga sessions.